Business Membership-Ownership Provisions

Membership-Ownership in the Co-op is voluntary and is open to any business owned by an individual 18 years or older and who is willing to accept the benefits and responsibilities of ownership.

1. One voting representative of a Business Member-Owner may vote in Co-op elections and ballots. Proxy voting is permitted.
2. Business Member-Owner shall inform the Co-op of change of business address or closing of said business.
3. The Board or Management of the Co-op store may define discount or benefit programs that may be altered or discontinued at any time at their discretion.
4. A patronage refund will be paid to the business member-owner when the Co-op becomes profitable. The amount of the patronage refund will be in proportion to the amount of patronage by that membership.
5. Shares are entitled to no dividends, will not be redeemable for more than their issuing price, and may be redeemable for less, or nothing, depending on the Co-op's finances.
6. Patronage refunds must be reported to the IRS as they require.
7. As with any start-up enterprise, owner equity is subject to risk including the risk of loss. Owner equity is subordinate to all other debts of the Co-op.
8. These provisions may be changed at any time by action of the Board. Members will be notified of changes.
9. These membership provisions are largely an informal summary of the benefits, rights and responsibilities of Co-op membership as contained in our Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws. To read the legal description, please refer to these documents.
